

pronouns!

Pronouns. Everyone has them. She, he, they, xe, ze. An example of a sentence using someone's pronouns would be: You should follow them on tiktok! Their content is really cool!

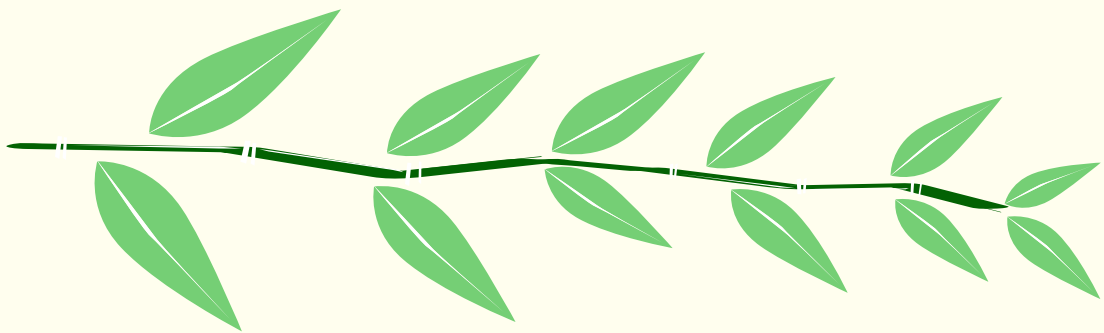

Another person may have their pronouns as She/they! This basically means the person uses both she/her and they/them pronouns. If they have put She/they it may mean they are more comfortable with she/her.

If the person has They/she, it means that they're more comfortable with they/them!

How to ask for someone's pronouns!

When you introduce yourself to someone! 'Hey! My name is Ariella, I use she/her pronouns, it's great to meet you!

By the way 'what are your pronouns?' Plainly asking also definitely works, and encourages other people to do the same!

A lot of people, including me like to put their pronouns in their social media bio!
